

Siif has developed a circular saw for cutting aluminum risers and feeders.

This system has been designed and developed to meet the following requirements:

- Machine strength: we have oversized the frame structure, spindles, guidance systems, etc.
- Operation in a foundry environment (chips, lubrication, oil, etc.).
- No civil engineering is required.

