

Siif has developed a circular saw for cutting feeders from aluminium casting parts.

This system has been designed and developed to meet the following requirements:

- Machine strength: we have deliberately oversized the frame structure, spindles, guidance systems, etc.
- Operation in a foundry environment (shavings, lubrication, oil, etc.)
- No civil engineering planning is required

