

Mainly applied to cylinder heads, Siif cubic volume machines ensure the dimensions of the parts prior to machining.

Tool feeds on the machining lines are reduced and scalping is carried out at the foundry.

Creating the cubic volume at the foundry reduces time and increases machining stability and the need for additional machining work stations

Circular saw

Bandsaw

Pre-machining

4-faces grinding

Cubing